

API Liability Agreement

In light of your using our API in your own software, you may wish to consider performing a test(s) for some or all of these functions that are described on the attached document to ensure that you can properly manage those functions in their entirety or partially through their implementation of the LMAX API. Let me know if you would like to schedule some time with LMAX to go through specific parts of this document.

We wish to remind you that if you perform a test(s) for some or all of the functions that are described on the attached document, this will not exclude, negate, diminish or in any way mitigate your liability, direct or indirect, for any direct, indirect, incidental or consequential losses, or special or punitive damages arising from or relating to your or a customer's use of the software, which would include inconsistencies between features and / or elements of a customer's account on your software with LMAX's records for that customer.

FX and CFDs are leveraged products that can result in losses exceeding your deposit. They are not suitable for everyone so please ensure you fully understand the risks involved. The information in this email is not directed at residents of the United States of America or any other jurisdiction where trading in CFDs and/or FX is restricted or prohibited by local laws or regulations. The information in this email and any attachment is confidential and is intended only for the named recipient(s). The email may not be disclosed or used by any person other than the addressee, nor may it be copied in any way. If you are not the intended recipient please notify the sender immediately and delete any copies of this message. Any unauthorised copying, disclosure or distribution of the material in this e-mail is strictly forbidden.
